LANDRY AND HATFIELD BARRED FROM TURF,

Stewards Conclude Investigation of Several Cases and Announce Rulings.

WITFUL A VERY GOOD COLT.

Wins in the Mud From Major Mansir and Scotch Plaid - Thane, Peat, Ahumada and Rankin Rewarded Talent.

New Orleans, La., Jan. 5.-The stewards o-day concluded their investigations of their investigated for adjudica-ed down rulings by which the of Hathold & Ownby is tion. They named down railings by which Harfield of the Urm of Hatfield & Ownby is excluded from the grounds for the remain-der of the mosting, Jockey Hicks is reinand Jockey Lindry, who rode a bid. Belvino a few days ago, is refused stated and Joeksy Landry, who rode a bid all privileges.

Until the Western Jockey Club takes final action the ruling of the stewards means practical disbarment from the turf for Landry and Itaffield. It affects Landry seriously, as he had a profitable contract with Gorman & Bauer, a Chelmant racing firm, to begin riding early in the spring. The track was sticky to-day and only three started in the handican. Scotch Phaid at even meany was preferred in the betting, as it was believed Redfern would outfole Cramer on Wifful. The latter went 50 the rest at 6 to 5. Scotch Phaid and the third rplo had a bad ride in the fifth. He taken into the deep going all the way. Frank Foster made the pace and won

LEIGH AND BROWN ORDERED AWAY Refused to Take Off Hinkers Worn by William F. at Order of Judges.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Cincinnati, Jan. 5-The races at New-Cincinnati, Jan. 5.—The races at Newport were run to-day in a snowstorm, but the attendance was good and the track was frozen hard. Three odds-on favorites were bowled over by well-played second choices. The feature of the day occurred when exjockey Tip Leigh and Owner W. Brown were ordered to take their horses away from the Newport track at once by order of the judges. Brown had William F. II in the fourth race, and the horse was backed down from 2 to 1 to 2 to 5 at post time. When the horses went to the post Judge Crelling noticed that the horse wore blinkers. He ordered Leigh the trainer to take them off, as in his previous race no blinkers were worn by him. Leigh refused to obey the commend, and the horse was withdrawa, and twenty minutes allowed for a new book, after which the ruling was handed out lenging Brown and Leigh the privileges of the track. ST. SIMON GREATEST OF SIRES. English Horse and His Two Sons Led

All English Studs in 1902. St. Simon blood flowed in the veins of the great winning thoroughbreds of England last year. Between the old horse himself and his three sons, Persimmon, St Frusquin and St. Florian, they for exceeded all other families in producing winners. Persimmon led all the sires in number of winners and value of money won. At that he led his venerable sire but a scant $500 in money won. The progeny of Persimmon won about $300,000 in round figures. St. Simon's about $30,000 in round figures. St. Simon's sons and daughters were just $800 behind him. Isinglass was third with $13,500. Carabine was fourth with $13,500. Ayrshire fifth with $30,000, and Gallinule sixth with about $73,000. Thus the fourth among British winners took more money than Hastings, the leader of American winners, while Ayrshire, the fifth horse, won more than Candlemas, the second horse in America. St. Florian and St. Frusquin won about $5,000 each. Thus the progeny of $1. Simon and his sons won $50,000. St. Simon is represented by four of the leading eight sires Persimmon is out of the renowned Pardita II. St. Frusquin is out of Isabel, she by Plebelan. St. Florian is out of Palmflower, and by the Palmer. He streed Atd Patrick, last year's Durby winner.

It is a littl estrange that bookmakers and track owners despise hurdle races and track owners despise hurdle races and steeplechases since 55 per cent of favorites won over the jumps about New York last season. This is some 16 per cent more than won on the flat. The prices laid against these fa-workes averaged 2 to 1, much better onts that laid against the clay climbers. Still the bookmakers and the track owners dery steeplechasing, though It is use a spectacle. epiechasing, though it is as a soft racing most pleasant and exciting of racing It has been said that the boys who ride steeplechasers are not paid enough to make them honest, and it is pointed out that if one rider were every race run about New York last season he would have in fees but $2,460. Still some of the best-paid riders that ever bestrode a horse have been caught cheating when drawing fabulous sularies.

with some ten stallions doing standing in the Middle States, Blackleck will soon be commoner in the Middle West and than that of Lexington, With Sandringham at Hamburg Place, King of Celles at McGrathiana, St. Erox at Runnymede, Scorpton in Boyle County, St. Simmonton at Hartland, Sain at St. Louis, St. Avonicus in California, and Tithonus at Nashville the blood of the famed St. Simon should make its impress on the Western turf. So far Sain, a grandson of St. Simon, leads the lot. No others, however, have not yet got their full sower. Scorplo is Scorplon's best, while Avoid is the beat race horse yet sired by Tithonus.

Tim Callahan Gives Him a Desperate Hattle for the Honors.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Jan. 5.—Benny Yanger gained the decision over Tim Callahan of Philadelphia to-night at the American Athletic Club after a flerce and most desperate battle. It was a lightling-fast affray from going to going, without as much as a second's loading. Yanger, wild to even up the trimming Callahan is said to have given him in Philadelphia, rushed all the time, flading away with both hands, battering Tim on the head in every break, and hurling a storm of Short-arm drives to the stomach. Callahan used his long left incommantly on the Italian's face, ever and anon bringing his right up sharply on the lody. There was not much to choose between the two boyz, Yanger's rushing counting, while Callahan heid and hung too frequently.

Francis did not play up to the standard that he is capable of, principally on account of "stage fright." He lacked confidence and missed many easy shots, pocketing his cue ball with disheartening regularity. Jones was cool and played a steady game throughout. Charley Sherman and Jess Leon will play to-night.

NEW BOXING LAW IN NEW YORK.

Next Session to Legalize Sport. New York, Jan. 5.-Again will the question of the legality of boxing come before the

New York Legislature. A new bill has been drawn up and will be one of the first measures presented at Albany. It promises first-class bouts between ama-leurs and professionals. The State is to benefit financially by all shows held, and is to be represented by a boxing commission of five persons, which will have power to regulate the sport. The sport is to be governed with iron-clad rules, while the State will be the bene-delary, receiving a portion of the gross re-ceipts in the same way as now from racing issociations.
